

1 John 5 1-5

“Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves the father loves his children as well. This is how we know that we love the children of God: By loving God and carrying out his commands. This is love for God: to obey his commands.

And his commands are not burdensome, for everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world? Only he who believes in the Son of God. “

5 key things from 1 John 5 1:5

- We have an eternal victory
- We can enter into relationship with the living God
- Satan has lost his power over us
- Death has been broken
- We have victory over the world

1 Corinthians 15: 50 – 58

⁵⁰ I need to emphasize, friends, that our natural, earthy lives don't in themselves lead us by their very nature into the kingdom of God. Their very "nature" is to die, so how could they "naturally" end up in the Life kingdom?

⁵¹⁻⁵⁷ But let me tell you something wonderful, a mystery I'll probably never fully understand. We're not all going to die—but we are all going to be changed. You hear a blast to end all blasts from a trumpet, and in the time that you look up and blink your eyes—it's over.

On signal from that trumpet from heaven, the dead will be up and out of their graves, beyond the reach of death, never to die again. At the same moment and in the same way, we'll all be changed. In the resurrection scheme of things, this has to happen: everything perishable taken off the shelves and replaced by the imperishable, this mortal replaced by the immortal. Then the saying will come true:

Death swallowed by triumphant Life!
Who got the last word, oh, Death?
Oh, Death, who's afraid of you now?

It was sin that made death so frightening and law-guilt that gave sin its leverage, its destructive power. But now in a single victorious stroke of Life, all three—sin, guilt, death—are gone, the gift of our Master, Jesus Christ. Thank God!

We achieve this daily by

- Increasing our Faith practically
- Increasing our ability to love
- Being obedient.

Share and celebrate your victories

- This will make our faith grow
- Increase love between us
- Celebrate and praise God working in our lives.
